

John Stringer, Board Member and Member of Safety & Technical Committee

For the past 24 years plus, I have been employed in the exploration drilling and/or directional drilling markets. Since January of 2011 I have worked in the position of Business Development / Contract Manager for Major Drilling Group, previously with Bradley Bros Drilling. Prior to that I held a management role with International Directional Services / Layne Christensen which included operations in various countries.